Data Privacy

JASNA cares about your privacy and is committed to keeping your personal information secure. In the course of joining JASNA or making a donation using a paper or online form, you provide personal data that identifies you or that can be identified as relating to you personally: for example, your name, address, telephone number, email address, and payment information.

JASNA only collects and stores the personal information we need to process membership transactions and donations, to deliver the services and publications included in your membership, and to communicate with you as outlined below. JASNA uses third-party service providers to process transactions on our behalf: Neon One, the maker of our Neon CRM Membership Management System and Neon Pay, our payment processing platform; and Constant Contact, our email service provider. JASNA does not sell, rent, or give the personal data we collect to third parties without prior consent.

- Mailing Address: Mailing addresses are used to send the printed publications included in a JASNA membership. JASNA also communicates by mail with members we cannot reach by email.
- Email Addresses: JASNA uses your Email Address to send automated transactional emails and account notifications, such as confirmation emails for membership enrollments and renewals, donation acknowledgments, password reset emails, membership expiration notices, and other similar messages.

In addition, JASNA sends non-transactional email (also known as “marketing email”) to people who have given us prior consent. To receive the monthly JASNA Update e-bulletin and other occasional emails about Jane Austen and the Society, members must actively opt in to join the JASNA Email List. Email List preferences can be changed at any time by updating your account profile in the JASNA Member Portal. You may also unsubscribe from the JASNA Email List using the link at the bottom of each email sent via our third-party email service provider, Constant Contact. Alternatively, you may contact us by email at e-communications@jasna.org.

- Phone Numbers: JASNA may communicate with members by phone when email and mail are not timely enough or when an email address has bounced and communication is required. JASNA does not use the telephone for fundraising or survey purposes.

You may review the personal information we maintain about you by logging in to the JASNA Member Portal to view your account profile. Or you may request a copy of the information by contacting membership@jasna.org. You may also ask us to correct or remove inaccurate personal data.
