JANE AUSTEN SOCIETY OF NORTH AMERICA

Jane Austen Book Box Program

Apply
now!

The Jane Austen Society of North America believes literature has the power to enrich and change lives—especially the works of Jane Austen! We invite schools, libraries, and community groups introducing Austen to students in grades K-12 to apply for a FREE Jane Austen Book Box. The books can be used in a program of your own design in a classroom, community reading program, or book club.

Who Is Eligible?

Schools, community groups, and libraries in the U.S. and Canada introducing Austen to elementary, middle, and high school students who are unfamiliar with her novels.

About JASNA

The Jane Austen Society of North America is a 501(c)(3) non-profit dedicated to the enjoyment and appreciation of Austen and her writing. Learn more about us at www.jasna.org.

About Jane Austen Book Boxes

- ✓ You can request multiple copies of one book or a mix of several titles.
- ✓ A variety of books are available: Austen's classic novels (including annotated editions and Spanish translations), modern retellings, graphic novels, and children's adaptations.
- ✓ Students must be allowed to keep the books for their personal libraries.
- ✓ Apply early. Book Boxes are awarded on a first-come, first-served basis until program funds are spent.
- ✓ Recipients must submit a follow-up report summarizing the results of their program.
